Annex 2: Instructions on the Voting Method for the Election of Directors and Independent Directors by Cumulative Voting

I. The election of Director Candidates and the election of Independent Director Candidates at the shareholders' meeting shall be numbered separately as separate proposal groups. Investors shall vote for each candidate under each proposal group.

II. The number of shares submitted represents the number of voting rights. For each proposal group, each share held by a shareholder entitles the shareholder to a total number of votes equal to the number of Directors to be elected under such proposal group. For example, if a shareholder holds 100 shares of a listed company, and 10 Directors are to be elected at the shareholders' meeting with 12 Director candidates, such shareholder shall have 1,000 voting rights for the Board of Directors election proposal group.

III. Shareholders shall vote within the limit of the voting rights allocated to each proposal group. Shareholders may vote according to their own discretion, either by concentrating all their voting rights on one candidate or by distributing them among different candidates in any combination. Upon completion of voting, the votes received for each proposal shall be calculated cumulatively.

IV. Example: A listed company holds a shareholders' meeting to conduct re-election of the Board of Directors by way of cumulative voting. Five Directors are to be elected with six Director candidates; two Independent Directors are to be elected with three Independent Director candidates. The matters subject to voting are as follows:

Proposals for cumulative voting
4.00	Proposal on the Election of Directors	Votes
4.01	For example: Chen ××
4.02	For example: Zhao ××
4.03	For example: Jiang××
.....
4.06	For example: Song ××
5.00	Proposal on the Election of	Votes

	Independent Directors
5.01	For example: Zhang ××
5.02	For example: Wang ××
5.03	For example: Yang××

An investor holds 100 shares of the Company as of the close of trading on the record date. Under the cumulative voting system, he or she shall have 500 voting rights in respect of Proposal 4.00 “Proposal on the Election of Directors” and 200 voting rights in respect of Proposal 5.00 “Proposal on the Election of Independent Directors”.

The investor may vote on Proposal 4.00 at his or her own discretion within the limit of 500 votes. He or she may either cast all 500 votes for a single candidate or distribute such votes among any candidates in any combination.

As shown in the table:

No.	Proposals	Votes
